The musical tradition of choral evensong dates back to well before the 12th century. Discover how enjoyable singing Evensong can be with expert professional tuition within a friendly, practical environment. Suitable for all mixed voices (men and women) keen to explore a fantastic selection of popular new and traditional repertoire from world-renowned composers, prior to performing in context as part of Choral Evensong.

MUSIC

A selection of popular choral repertoire from leading publisher Oxford University Press will be used. Vocal Scores will be available for singers to borrow for the duration of the workshop and performance, the cost of which is included in the participation fee.

LOCATION (Visit www.googlemaps.co.uk for further details)

St John the Evangelist, Church Road, Redhill, Surrey, RH1 6QA consists of a wonderful church and brand new Community Centre. Both buildings are fully accessible with excellent facilities. Limited parking is available on site / surrounding roads.
